I Don't Miss You Now

Hey now baby You never left me alone yeah You used to own me I was wasting my life away

Hey but lately You're no longer the only I must have been crazy There's no prize for the lonely

I don't miss you now I don't miss you now I don't miss you now I don't miss you now

Well I can tell you I couldn't wait to get home yeah You never ignored me You'd always listen to what I'd say

I cried when I lost you But tears are a small price to pay Now when I come across you Well it took some time but

I don't miss you now I don't miss you now I don't miss you now I don't miss you now

I don't miss you now I don't miss you now I don't miss you now I don't miss you now Colin Hay
