

Too Young

Colony 5

I do believe in the things you say
Although I don't agree, agree today
That life is cruel to live without me
The dark that clings on to me makes your deception hard to see

Nothing in life is worth to die for Eyes to see with that's what they are there for
But I am just too young to die
I am too young to care at all

I trust in God to make me see
If there is something wrong
Something wrong with me
I need to know,
put my faith in you to make me feel to distinguish between fake and real
I use my youth

Nothing in life is worth to die for
But I am just too young to die
I am too young to care at all
