The Way Things Had To Be

Commander Venus

Why do we always end up like this?

The same position on the couch staring into each other's eyes But do we have to talk about this now And do I have to feel like crying?

Because I, I don't want to run
And don't come back again, we could have avoided this
Five desperate hours pass and now we know the truth
That I can't learn to love you

So desperate I can taste it
Wishing things were different
But still I cannot change
Run, and don't look back again
There's nothing left to see
These empty months have proved my inability to treat you like y ou deserve to be treated
But then you can't expect me to change who I am

So from now on I will not leave myself open to needing someone And trust is not the answer That's just what we do when we can't stand to be alone again
