

Classics Of Love

Common Rider

At one
I was sitting and thinking of all the beautiful things he could have become
Instead of a lyrical oracle and I'm the most appreciative one
'Cause I'm in a world of my own when I'm into it I don't want anything else
And nothing can bother me when I'm inside of it cause I'm outside of myself

Midnight Marauder spinning on my stereo
Mr. Desmond Dekker has a crown made of gold
The kids are alright
A what-a what I hear
London calling
But I have no fear
Ms. Ella Fitzgerald got no peer
A Music sweet music make the truth so clear Classics of love make a dark day light
If you don't believe the words then just look into their eyes

Chorus:
Sun-Shining, Sun-Shining, Sun-Shining-Shining down
On a cloudy day
I know those songs gonna last forever
That's what I say!

At two
I'm running around in my mind and my mind's a fucking zoo
One of the ones under the gun wondering "what do I do?"
Ever feel the same way? Slave to the brain wave Brave if you pave ways through to the true you?

If you take me out, please don't forget to take me home
If you take me to a party, please don't forget the microphone
If we take my car, then please don't try to touch the radio
'Cause the midnight sun is burning bringing peace into my soul!

Chorus

Callin'
Callin'

Now I'm listening
To the classics of love
Tn the day and night
You got the power
Radiate and fade
You got the vibe
Make you feel alright
Come on!
