My Bleeding Victim

Communic

Where am I now?
Have I turned blind?
Broken down by the guilt of my killing hand

My bleeding victim
Folds her hands an prays
My bleeding victim
Folds her hands and prays

The morning rise the sky burns red Sheets are soaked by unknown blood and soil Memories burn - I crawl in pain The scene I see is becoming more surreal

Beyond the veil - stalking my prey Beyond control - I'm on my way

Drawn into the center of the weak
Madness flares within my angry mind
Alone in this maze where voices speak
In twisted tongues that taunt for evil deeds

Beyond the veil - stalking my prey Beyond control - Unveil my pain

I feel the blood slowly flow
In a reflecting eye I see them die
Heartbeat that silently decays
Sinking deep into the Earth's hungry soil

I will return
Same face
With a new mask
Trying to hide
From the guilt
Of my killing hand

My bleeding victim
Folds her hands and prays
My bleeding victim
Folds her hands and...

....prays while the blood slowly flow
In a reflecting eye I see them die
A heartbeat that silently decays
Sinking deep into the Earth's hungry soil

Drawn into the center of the weak
Madness flares within my angry mind
Alone in this maze where voices speak
In twisted tongues that taunt for evil deeds

Beyond the evil - I'm on my way
Beyond the evil - Stalking my prey
Beyond the evil - I'm on my way
Beyond the evil - Unveil my pain
