

Home Today

The Connells

Coming home today
A season spent away
It is hard for me to see
Hard for me to say

I like your face
But I can't anymore

It was quite a time
And I'm sure that I'm
Feeling very clear for me
Very clear for you

I like your face
But I can't anymore

Let's do it again
I will recall
There are things
I could have done

I will recall
There are things
I should have shown

Did you find the time
To keep us both in mind?
Did you wander far from me
Wander far from you?

I like your face
But I can't anymore

Let's do it again
I will recall
There are things
I could have done

I will recall
There are things
I should have shown

To dream is not to say
I'll take it anyway
A year is song enough for me
Yet here we are today

I like your face
But I can't anymore
