

Take It Like a Man

Conway Twitty

Daddy told me a man must be strong
And hold what he feels inside
Women want heroes with nerves made of steel
Sittin' tall on the white horse they ride.

So, I won't cry when you say goodbye,
I'll just let you go
I'll stick to my guns,
Like father like son.

I'll take it like a man
And watch you walk away
I'll take it like a man
You'll never know I feel the blow
I should get down on my knees
But I was raised to take a stand
Hide my tears and take it like a man.

Daddy told me don't ever show pain
'Cause a real man will never give in
But the lessons he taught me just get in the way
With the threads of our love wearing thin.

The family tradition
Taught me to be proud
But what good is pride
If it kills me inside to.

Take it like a man
And watch you walk away
I'll take it like a man
You'll never know I feel the blow
I should get down on my knees
But I was raised to take a stand
Hide my tears and take it like a man.

I'd get down on my knees
But I was raised to take a stand
Hide my tears and take it like a man...
