I dream for you

To be for you

But all the time your window is closed

I see you through the glass.
A reflection of myself maybe falls
Between us when the sun comes out..

... So give me life and soul to go When the sun shines bright And give me love and lust and hope In the darkest night...

Your blinds are blind and your cats want to birds In my garden Heaven Where I'm lodging tonight And the glass in your window Is killng tomorrow for me...

Closer and closer..we can't get much older I'm smashing but breaking,
My heart has awoken
These windows soon shatter for me
Black on the outside! Black on the inside!
Together we'll make it
Darkness sedated to grey...
But the bars at your window
Are killing tomorrow for me...
