

Bound To Fall

Crashdiet

Livin' out in the streets of my old town
Two hearts tried to meet while goin' down
A little girl hidin' from the city lights
He's just a boy on a slow lull tonight

Trying hard to survive in a damaged world
Livin' life is truly not without it
Gettin' high, messin' up another dream
I wonder why it's never, ever as it seems

She wanted love, but he let her down
Ain't nobody gonna turn it around

Rise up
Only then you let it fall down, gotta take it on
Rise up
The world is spinnin' faster, you fallin' for love and you're bound to fall

And now that new egg is dull and all is new
But he's still in the dark, alone and blue
This little girl, cryin' on the floor tonight
He's back on the streets out to a fight

She wanted love, but he let her down
He's runnin' high with no turnin' around

Rise up
Only then you let it fall down, gotta take it on
Rise up
The world is spinnin' faster, you fallin' for love and you're bound to fall

You know love is like poison
Still you take it on
You headin' for disaster
You fallin' for love and you're bound to fall

Rise up
Only then you let it fall down, gotta take it on
Rise up
The world is spinnin' faster, you fallin' for love and you're bound to fall

Rise up, fall down
You've gotta to take it on
Rise up, the world is spinnin' faster
Bound to fall
