Heart of Steel

Crimson Glory

Your love hides like a dark star Shining, hidden in fear Strangers feeding upon your soul Call me on through the darkness Hold me deep in yo eaven Touch me with fingers of velvet blue Fingers of mysty blue... Feelings deep as the oceanCold waves whisper their warning Danger walks with a fragile heart Got to have a heart of steelHeart of steel Yeah, heart of steel You journey through my mindOver the walls of pain Angels of lust guard my domainWhile dark eyes shine in the mirr orSearching for someoneStrangers, cold as the winter wind Fade away Got to have a heart of steel Heart of steel Got to have a heart of steel Heart of steel Lonely freedom, eyes on pain Tears will fall like silent rain Hearts will shatter, feelings fade Somehow it always seems the same My love hides like a dark star Laughing, hidden in silence Strangers cold as the winter wind Fade away Feelings deep as the oceanCold waves whisper their warning Danger walks with a fragile heart Walks with a fragile heart Got to have a heart of steel Heart of steel Got to have a heart of steel Heart of steel Cause the feelings come and go And you never really knowIf th eling's ever real

You got to have a heart of steel

So you got to have a heart of steel
