

Fables

Cris Cab

Sleeping in on Saturdays
Can't get off the couch, yeah
Bong sits on the table still
From last night's run around

Said it's all in the fables
How it's supposed to go down, yeah
You may feel unstable
But you're still on the ground

Whoa, whoa, whoa, whoa

Marvin Gaye's my matinee
Gonna order something in
New high score on this video game
Another beer and I'll be king

Said it's all in the fables
How it's supposed to go down, yeah
You may feel unstable
But you're still on the ground

Whoa, whoa, whoa, whoa

What's the story about
If it ain't worth living
Some time to chill out
It's your decision
Not to stress about
This life you're given
It's whatever makes you happy now
It's whatever makes you happy now

What's the story about
If it ain't worth living
Some time to chill out
It's your decision
Not to stress about
This life you're given
It's whatever makes you happy now
It's whatever makes you happy now
It's whatever makes you happy now
It's whatever makes you happy now, yeah
It's whatever makes you happy now
It's whatever makes you happy now
