Is Fuair an Chroí

Cruachan

Medb; You said you would always be there, You said you would always care, You said you would always be there, You said you would always care, I was nadve and I was wrong, To you, I do not belong!

Ailill; Say what you want to say, You always try to have your way, I try to say that things in life are different. If this is how you feel in your heart, Then I don't want to be a part, In anything you say -I won't listen.

Your love redeems my pain,
But I don't want to feel the shame,
You've tried to pierce my heart,
And you've succeeded.

We know now it could never be, What we once had was ecstacy, I can't pretend my soul is not bleeding.
