

Jesus Belongs In Your Heart

Crystal Lewis

I can see the teardrops in your eyes
Seems to me that now you realize
Jesus belongs in your heart

I can hear between your words, your breathless sigh
Seems to me that now you realize
Jesus belongs in your heart

Talkin' 'bout my Saviour
Talkin' 'bout my Lord
He alone can save you
If you'll take Him at His word
Singin' 'bout my Jesus
And lifting up His name
Trust in Him to save you
You'll never be the same
