Something To Believe In

Curtis Mayfield

If you had a choice of colors Which one would you choose, my brothers If there was no day or night Which would you prefer to be right

How long have you hated your white teacher Who told you, you love your black preacher Do you respect your brother's woman friend And share with black folks, not of kin

People must prove to the people
A better day is coming for you and for me
With just a little bit more education
And love for our nation, would make a better society

Now some of us would rather cuss and make a fuss Than to bring about a little trust But we shall overcome our beliefs someday If you'll only listen to what I have to say

And how long have you hated your white teacher Who told you, you love your black preacher Can you respect your brother's woman friend And share with black folks, not of kin

I said, now people must prove to the people
A better day is coming for you and for me
With just a little bit more education
And love for our nation, would make a better society

And if you had a choice of colors Which one would you choose, my brothers If there was no day or night Which would you prefer to be right

If you had a choice of colors Which one would you choose my brothers
