

Take Me Higher

Cut Copy

Take me higher than the eye can focus
Take me deeper than the mind can dream
Take me further than the widest ocean
That's the first thing that she said to me

Forget about the world around us
Those prophets have you giving up
Gold and silver raining down upon us
When believe all you need is love

Oh, my baby love will open our eyes
Oh, it lifts us up and makes us realize

When you're gazing over the horizon
When your memory starts to fade away
When you've given everything you've got
It's not enough, to call this love

Oh, my baby love will open our eyes
Oh, it lifts us up and makes us realize

Once you get it
Forget it
And never let you go

And never let you go

Yeah, yeah, yeah

Oh, my baby love will open our eyes
Oh, it lifts us up and makes us realize
