

Through the eyes of wonder I see creation unfurl, The beginnin' and endin' of my mind twistin' in curls, so I'm out of the box of thought enterin' a new religion no man can ever hold me dow n breakin' through a system

And I wanna believe no tricks are up your sleeves but yet as yo u turned around a card fell down and it was an ace of hearts so you just lost face so I'm never gonna listen to anything that you say (okay)

So now I'm movin' on to the next song cuz ya just don't know wh atcha got until it's gone cuz if you did you should treasure it like a kid, the knife of life is sharp when you're doin' a bid

Hello playin' the cello? Nah I got percussion my heart beat hea vy and bass give you concussion my soul grown deep like rivers now ain't that somethin'? Don't come too close mind under const ruction.
