

Love Somebody

Daley

I'm feeling restless in the morning
Composure screwed up on the floor
I'm such a mess when you ignore me
You only leave me needing more

Return home, alone
Put on, a sad song
There's a want in me, that won't say no

Well, we all wanna be loved
We all wanna be loved
Loved,
We wanna be loved

But when your pride has all been spent
It's the beginning of the end
And it's sad but it is true
You put your own head in a noose
When you love somebody
When you love somebody

I'm drunk and taking things I don't need
Come tomorrow I won't be fine
I take the risk to feel your heartbeating
Through skin and bone up close to mine

And it's all in , the name of love
Cause I always felt, I never had enough
There's a want in me, that won't switch off

Well I guess, we all wanna be loved
We all wanna be loved...

But when your pride has all been spent
It's the beginning of the end
And it's sad but it is true
You put your own head in a noose
When you love somebody
When you love somebody

These fantasies are losing their grip
Between lips and close pressed finger tips
The song we sing is so nostalgic
Take me back to a time when I knew a little less,

But when your pride has all been spent
It's the beginning of the end
And it's sad but it is true
You put your own head in a noose

when your pride has all been spent
It's the beginning of the end
And it's sad but it is true
You put your own head in a noose
When you love somebody
When you love somebody
