Yeah!

Got out the 600

Blunted

Chicks hunt him

Neighborhood know he comin'

Jakes hate him

Snakes could not violate him

Pimps memorize his lines-verbatim

He reps N.Y. yo

Gives C-notes to winos

Not church

It's how he tithe though

He walks the tenement

Sleeps at his super fly condo

My kinda nigga

My Icon, my Idol

No certificate

For this misfit who handle business

The odds stacked against him

He fights back mackin Benzes

Never puts cash or ass

Before friendship

He laughs last?

As some die young

He is still existing

Somehow he got around the pitfalls of the system

When he walks we watch

When he talks we listen

Leaders

This one's for all the leaders Leader Lets all change the world Change the world

This one's for all the leaders

Leader

Lets all change the world

Change the world

Who do I follow?

Who do I copy?

Look in to the mirror

And it's you I see look at me

Everything new

Like it fresh from the factory

Everything you do?

It impact me

Your lifestyle attract me

Parents try distract me When I grow up I want to be like you exactly And as soon as I get over this acne There's no way anybody coulda stop me Me gravitate toward the aura And all the mannerism The sending out of orders And man start moving busy The locking of the corners? The streets and all the buildings Mi love you like a father Mi ready and mi willing Anything what you a talk Is law in my dominion And mi have similar thoughts I share the same opinions Mi have it say you smart With mi best interest at heart I'm following your path Yow mine whe you a walk
