Love's On Every Corner

Dannii Minogue

Oh, remind Love on every corner Oh, remind me

Love on every corner Reminding me, reminding me Love on every corner Reminding me, exactly how it should be

The only one who touched the heart of me But I was just another lover You could have satisfied the whole of me You had the power to uncover

And I'm beginning to relive again All the magic that you gave me So don't you expect me to forget When love is all around me

Love on every corner Reminding me, reminding me Love on every corner Reminding me, exactly how it should be

Oh, Ooh Love on every corner Oh Oh Yeah

You touched me deeper than the eye could see I never want another lover A shining light amongst the stormy sea You gave me more than any other

And I'm beginning to relive again All the magic that you gave me So don't you expect me to forget When love is all around me

Nowhere I can run Nowhere I can hide Everywhere I turn, it's facing me How should I forgive How can I forget Don't you know, exactly what it does to me Yeah Yeah Yeah

Love on every corner Reminding me, reminding me Love on every corner Reminding me, exactly how it should be

Love on every corner Reminding me, reminding me Love on every corner Reminding me, exactly how it should be

Nowhere I can run Nowhere I can hide Everywhere I turn, it's facing me How should I forgive How can I forget Don't you know, exactly what it does to me Yeah Yeah Yeah

Love on every corner Reminding me, reminding me Love on every corner Reminding me, exactly how it should be

Love on every corner Reminding me, reminding me Love on every corner Reminding me, exactly how it should be
