You were searching
For some evidence
That I've been cheating
Checking my phone, my mail, my crib, my pocket for no reason
Looking for prove... prove... prove...
But you're only wasting time

You told me you were going confess
If only I came clean and
That when I gave you your own medicine
Which you believed in
But it wasn't true... true... true...
Still you think I'm just denying

You can say whatever you want about me
But the truth of the matter is
I never did you wrong... did you wrong... did you wrong...
And you gonna miss me when I'm gone... when I'm gone... when I'm gone..
Yeah you gonna regret it... Yeah you gonna regret it... regret it

You started playing games
So now you're gonna deal with it
And oh it's such a shame
That we couldn't be real about it
Karma... Karma... Karma
Yeah you gonna regret it... Yeah you gonna regret it... regret it

It's been more than a couple of month
And we ain't even speaking
You don't return my calls
Thinking that you will get even
Why you act a fool... fool... fool
There is something that ain't right

Maybe you're the one that's been
Incognito and creeping
If it's so then let me know cause you
Confuse my feelings
I'm about to lose it... lose it... lose it...
Why trying to switch it round... round... round...

You can say whatever you want about me
But the truth of the matter is
I never did you wrong... did you wrong... did you wrong...
And you gonna miss me when I'm gone... when I'm gone... when I'm gone..
Yeah you gonna regret it... Yeah you gonna regret it... regret it

You started playing games
So now you're gonna deal with it
And oh it's such a shame
That we couldn't be real about it
Karma... Karma... Karma
Yeah you gonna regret it... Yeah you gonna regret it... regret it

I can't believe you
Give me this nonsense
How you gonna tell me I let you down

If u got a little bit heart in you
Can you please explain?
Why you flip the coin around?
I know I've done a lot of bad
But I never been in bed
With another lady trust me it's true
And the proof that you claim you got
Is nothing but a way for u to come up with an excuse?

To smooth and slowly get away
To afraid to tell it
Straight to my face
Six years I stayed with u
Laid with ya
Is this you wanna play?
It's okay, it's alright
Go ahead and scream
By the time that wake up
You gonna regret
That you lost a good man
For sure

You started playing games
So now you're gonna deal with it
And oh it's such a shame
That we couldnt be real about it
Karma... Karma... Karma
Yeah u gonna regret it... Yeah u gonna regret it... regret it

You can say whatever you want about me
But the truth of the matter is
I never did you wrong... did you wrong... did you wrong...
And you gonna miss me when I'm gone... when I'm gone... when I'm gone..
Yeah you gonna regret it... Yeah you gonna regret it... regret it

You started playing games
So now you're gonna deal with it
And oh it's such a shame
That we couldn't be real about it
Karma... Karma... Karma
Yeah you gonna regret it... Yeah you gonna regret it... regret it
