Myself Heretic

All mental poison comes in many hundred different ways But instead of searching I am better off without the prayer's days

Myself heretic, I have chosen not to know it all
Myself heretic, I am different but I know my call
Myself heretic, I know my place and chose to be
Myself heretic, I'd rather die than lie to me
```

I am asking you if you have seen it all Have proven this world to be divine And I am glad, that for you a kingdom shines and that you believe in signs

This is myself heretic
