Iconoclasm Omega

Dark Fortress

Can't stand the thought to exist within a lie Katharsis unleashed, hear my call This is the point of no return

Can't wait for the day Armageddon rapes humanity Nemesis unleashed, nations will pray in vain I have seen the face of death This is the end supreme

I abdicate god
And his creation
I abdicate "life"
And mankind's false illusions

Pitch black deserts await my pain, so odious mundane A perversion called "life" lead my astray Let me awake from this never ending faint

Bury me insanity!
All this can't be real
Bury me despondency!
There are just too many wounds to heal

Within the storm of a thousand fears You will see the face of disdain Within the hour of a thousand tears You will hear my name again

Dead Race Walking!
