

Black Rain

Dark Lotus

I can see the Earth startin' to shift
Inside out
No trace of the moon
since the face burnt out
Watch the rain fall down,
hard and heavy
Dark black like dirt
but it will burn severely
You can call it the body of the Lotus
Hand of the magical supernatural keeping you focused
If the rain didn't get ya
then your here for a reason
To spread the word to the world
That the pod is in season

You can hear the thunder clap
The full moon gleaming like the eyes of a cat
The Dark Lotus is back (Bitch)
And you can feel the ground pulsating
And all the haters start hating but its all been anticipated
And we been waitin' till the timing is right
To get to bombin' on you bitches who misguided the light
And anybody who don't get it,
get the fuck out my sight
Bitch, I ain't explaining
I'm just claimin' your life, Bitch!

Black Raindrops keep falling down
(You can tell there's something goin' on, take a look around)
These Black Raindrops keep falling down
(Arms spread to the Lotus Cross holdin' it down)
These Black Raindrops keep falling down
(And I don't know why...why?)
These Black Raindrops keep falling down
(And I may never know why...know why?)

I stick a running chainsaw blade all down your throat
And fuckin' outta ya ass,
I cut ya body in half
I gotta be bloody
Leave somebody blood on my body
I need to be the bloodiest of bloody bodies and hotties
I'm 'bout to murda for the Lotus
Black Rain it falls upon us
And I don't need normal therapy I know who I am
And I don't like a blade through your brain do ya KA BLAM!!

I sit alone speakin' with the head of a raven
He sat there and told me why my life's worth savin'
So I shot him in the face
And then I shot myself
After he said they were trying to turn the Kingdom into Hell
I was appalled
Put his head in my burlap sack

and just then black rain hit me in the back Ice cold rain drops that look like black blood are falling all over the neighborhood (here it comes now)

Black Raindrops keep falling down
(You can tell there's something goin' on, take a look around)
These Black Raindrops keep falling down
(Arms spread to the Lotus Cross holdin' it down)
These Black Raindrops keep falling down
(And I don't know why...why?)
These Black Raindrops keep falling down
(And I may never know why..know why?)

A new age, a new time
Now that the planets are aligned
Imagine a Lotus sign
Imagine the broken minds
Just waitin' to be fixed
(With the petals of the Lotus you can answer all that shit)
We the unstoppable force
all you hate us of course
Armed with the fury in the Family is the power source
Makin' red clouds filled with black rain sowed up
Until they become too heavy immersed and I show up

Maybe this stupid ass ain't heard it's the pod lil' bitch and we back like a message bird
Lift ya chin, face to the sky is black rain
Palms out feel the sting and let your soul drain
We don't give a fuck, like it or not Lotus up in the mirror shots and all Juggalo spots
I put a stain in they little blade pieces cuz when we out bitch, the black rain increases

Black Raindrops keep falling down
(You can tell there's something goin' on, take a look around)
These Black Raindrops keep falling down
(Arms spread to the Lotus Cross holdin' it down)
These Black Raindrops keep falling down
(And I don't know why...why?)
These Black Raindrops keep falling down
(And I may never know why..know why?)

"Oh who I know this is part of my real life?"
"Oh who I know this is part of my real life?"
