Again

Darkwater

You made me fall again The fear won't go away tears never stop to fall I made a sacrifice I gave it all away

Shadows call again I fight my fears in vain I can not stop the pain I guess I'll live this way until you fade away

I'm trying to forget

Oh, again and again I try But your eyes will not leave my mind Oh, again and again

I may seem well, I'm not My body's just a shell for an inside hell I am your sacrifice you gave me all away

I won't take this fall, I won't Fera may still be there my tears still remain But my wounds will heal no more for you to steal

I'm trying to forgive

Oh, again and again I try And your image will leave my mind Oh, again and again

I guess that the remorse you feel For what you've done Is too strong for you to wield

Oh, again and again I try Your image will leave my mind Oh, again and again I try Your sin won't end my life Oh, again and again
