

Tsc li The Salvation (live)

Darkwell

w the road is paved enough blood is spilled the path is gone...my fate fulfilled the gate in front of my eyes where sweet salvation lies I always had to play along the cruel game it's over now... no remorse, no fame
but the end is mine

My spirit's rising my mind is falling my soul is burning sweet salvation
The flames are licking at my shanks pain screams through my mortal body there's my tortured soul there's my evil spirit Fanatic greeds stands in their eyes as my body turns to ashes and my soul is free the evil spirit is now ours
