

Kill Your Attitude

Darwin Deez

So i stay
Six feet away
From you at all times,
Until you don't know who i am
And i match
Your movements, match
Each little toe tap,
And stand off to the side
Reflecting you in silence

You wanna play games,
Change your number and burn your outfit
Who should i say gains
When you lose your shit?

Kill your attitude, girl
You know i'm mad at you still,
And i know you're mad at me
But when your batteries
But when your batteries die, don't come untied

It's been a year
Since you were here
I hope you've had fun,
With your arms across your chest
And i write
You letters write
But you don't read them
You throw them in the garbage

You wanna play games,
Scrap the doormat and leave a landmine
Who should i say gains when you lose your mind?

Kill your attitude, girl
You know i'm mad at you still,
And i know you're mad at me
But when your batteries
But when your batteries drain, don't be a pain

You wanna play games

Kill your attitude, girl
You know i'm mad at you still,
And i know you're mad at me
But when your batteries
But when your batteries
But when your batteries drain, don't be a pain
