Would They Love Me Down In Shreveport

David Allan Coe

If they saw me riding in long hair flying in the wind Would They Love Me Down in Shreveport today If I only sang the blues, and wore patent leather shoes Would They Love Me Down in Nashville today If they saw me talk with ease to the drunkard and the thieves Would They Love Me out in Wichita today Would the rich me think it's funny, if I said give up your mone Would They Love Me up on Wall street today If I made the wine from water, gave it to there sons and daught ers What would the saints in Salt lake City say If I talked of brotherhood walking through there neighborhoods Would They Love Me up in Boston today If I said love those how use you, and forgive those how abuse y and turn the other cheek what would you say If you saw me riding in long hair flying in the wind Would you Love Me Down in Would you Love Me Down in
