Real Cool World

David Bowie

So far this love is delightful The face of seduction was you But I listened for each and every footstep In this Real Cool World

Questioning saintlike and fantastic heroes Feeling like lost little children in fabled lands So I listen for each and every friendship In this Real Cool World

Now there is you In my Real Cool World

Starry-eyed life but somehow believing in nothing You whisper sweet nothing but reading between your lines I listen color me doubtful In this Real Cool World

Now there is you In my Real Cool World

You came from nowhere You came from nowhere You held me you shook me Hey

It's a Cool World It's a Cool World

It's a Real Cool World It's a Real Cool World It's a Real Cool World It's a Real Cool World

Now there is you In my Real Cool World

Now there is you In my Real Cool World

Mmmm Real Cool World
