

In the silence of heaven's pride
The gates of love where opened wide
Darkness in harmony with light
Day just the shadow of night

Beautiful face in deadly embrace
Fallen from grace...

You are my dark star from dimensions afar
Dusk and dawn you merge
Waters are deep where lost feelings sleep
You are the end of my search

You are my angel...

The tide it did turn
Every angel must burn in the wake of enlightenment
When divinity dies see another one rise
To set our yearning souls free

Fallen kings...
Shadows wandering in the night
Holy fires burning bright
Broken wings...
Evil conquered paradise
Angels getting hypnotized
