

Baby Don't Say Goodbye

Dead or Alive

I've been to New York, Paris, and the south of Spain,
And I'll never find a lover like you again,
I hear a Four Tops record on the radio,
And the words remind me, I miss you.
Ah Ah Baby don't say goodbye,
The word is out that we'll soon be parted,
Out of sight isn't out of mind,
So spare a thought for me,
I guess you couldn't face,
The heavy responsibility, of looking at my face,
And knowing you could never lie to me,
Bad dreams can come true
I woke up this morning and I knew I was losing you
Breaking hearts never make a noise,
If they did it would be a sad sound,
I'm not like the other boys,
I refuse to stay here and be clowned around with,
Your love cause pain,
And if I had the chance, I'd do it all again.
Ah Ah Baby don't say goodbye,
The word is out that we'll soon be parted,
Out of sight isn't out of mind,
So spare a thought for me,
Ah Ah Baby don't say goodbye,
Please spare a thought for the broken hearted,
My love baby, it blew your mind
Some things are meant to be,
You were meant for me.
Your love caused pain,
And if I had the chance, I'd take you back again.
Black leather roses wrapped in chain,
You gave romantically,
A jacket studded with your name,
These things I keep eternally,
Bad dreams can come true
I woke up this morning and I knew I was losing you
Ah Ah Baby don't say goodbye...
I've been to New York, Paris, and the south of Spain,
And I'll never find a lover like you again,
I hear a Four Tops record on the radio,
And the words remind me, I miss you.
Your love caused pain,
But if I had the chance, I'd do it all again
Ah Ah Baby don't say goodbye
