

The Time Is Not Endless

Dead Silence Hides My Cries

Your time has passed
It's your demise
Your life is flashed
Before your eyes

Through dimmest light
You try to see
Time of the past
You become free

What's pain inside?
That makes you weak
What memories
Have made you sick

Time will destroy
Chance to exist
Make your last breath
And don't resist

Time is ruthless
This is prison
In which we are
Locked forever

Time it rules us
Time it kills us
