

Keepin' It Sunnyside Up

Deaf Havana

Hey there girls let's see ya moves, my names Ricky Bobby and I like your boobs, its getting too much babe for me, my nose has a quiver for your two timing front pocket, let's go out for a drive I've only had a few but it'll be just fine alright,

touch me in ways that I've never felt before, my eyes have turned black with lust, with the intention of darker pleasures, we can do it on my leather seats, the only thing I need is just to feel some fake love,

to feel it just a little on my disused fingers,
the only thing i need is just to feel some fake love on my disused fingers

I never was exceptionally a dark deep soul, never have, never will, never have, never will,

the only thing I need is just to feel some fake love,
the only thing I need is just to feel some fake love,

and I can be everything you're looking for tonight,
and I can be everything you're looking for tonight,
and I can be everything you're looking for tonight,

but ya know it don't mean shit
