

Forgetting You

Dean Martin

When they tell you I'm dating
With somebody new
Don't you know that I'm playing a part
Forgetting you

I still want you to want me
Though you said we're through
Can't you see that I don't want to start
Forgetting you

I tried to stay at home and pace the floor and watch the clock
routine
'til I began to see your face in every magazine
I don't want other kisses
Only yours will do
Don't you know that it's breaking my heart
Forgetting you

I tried to stay at home and pace the floor and watch the clock
routine
'til I began to see your face in every magazine
I don't want other kisses
Only yours will do
Don't you know that it's busting my heart
Forgetting you
Forgetting you
