Cast through the gates we're looking for you trying to run there's nothing you can do

Fight for your life Not gonna give up till we shoot you down

Intruder Intruder

Nowhere to hide Time's running out The angels' gonna take ya with no doubt

.. and then trapped just about to scream suddenly you wake up and it's just a dream

Intruder Intruder

You're running
You're hiding
You can't get away

You're screaming
You're crying
You're here to stay
You're pleading
You're begging
My hearts' ..
The truth will be .. tonight
