

Turn the Page

Death By Stereo

Yeahh...

I can push you down, I can break you down, I can get around,
Work my way around, I can push you down, I can get around,
I can push you down, I can break you down, I can get around,
Work my way on down, I can push you down, I can get around.

If you can hear the song I sing,
Then you can hear the sound of fear,
If you can help me smash this place,
I'll help you sweep the rubble clear,
If this is where I don't belong,
Excuse me, I'll just fucking leave,
Let me light the match real quick,
Burn you down, and I won't grieve.

I can push you down, I will break you down, I can get around,
Work my way around, I can push you down, I can get around,
I can push you down, I can break you down, I can get around,
Work my way on down, I can push you down, I will break you down

If you can hear the song I sing,
Then you can hear the sound of fear,
If you can help me smash this place,
I'll help you sweep the rubble clear,
If this is where I don't belong,
Excuse me, I'll just fucking leave,
Let me light the match real quick,
Burn you down, and I won't grieve.

I can push you down, I'll break you down
I can get on down, I work my way around
I can break you with a fist
I will break you down.

I won't grieve the loss of bliss, to me bliss is not ignorance,
If you can throw it in my face, then I can piss on your disgrace,
Programmed to assimilate, from a very tender age,
It's time to move out of my way, so I can go on, turn the page!
