Cyanide

Deathstars

(The cyanide) (Drink the cyanide) This is the hand that will blind your eyes And split your spine This is the blade that'll visit your flesh And release the wine Play! You play with toys that have triggers And you hear the led moves near Play! You play with razors and it hurts, it hurts As you face your fears So face the dark And I'll teach you about fire In the blink of an eye - Now drink the Cyanide -The worlds collide And you know That it's pure filth That I hide On these plains there's a burning ruin That must be found On these plains there's a demon that sleeps. It must be unbound Runl You run for the borders Where epistles burn in the arms of man Run! You run among bodies and they scream, They scream to bite God's hand So face the dark And I'll teach you about fire In the blink of an eye (Now drink the Cyanide) The worlds collide And you know That It's pure filth That I hide So face the dark And I'll teach you about fire In the blink of an eye (Now drink the Cyanide) The worlds collide And you know That It's pure filth That I hide (Now drink the cyanide) (So face the dark) (And I'll teach you about fire) (And the blink of an eye) When the dark does what the dark does best, It's darkness! Let the dark do what the dark does best, Let there be darkness! So face the dark And I'll teach you about fire In the blink of an eye

(Now drink the Cyanide) The worlds collide And you know That It's pure filth That I hide
