

Since You Resigned

Deep Insight

Faithful in this world is an unknown word.
I am powerless.
You were fading away from me.
I am powerless.
A wish without an effort,
an effort without a heart.
Boat without a sail,
path untravelled.

Trapped with the attraction,
danger of the secret world.
Red lights, white lines.
You search for love though you have it.

You tangled me in your spider web.
I am powerless.
At last you got caught in your vice,
the scales fell from my eyes.

I gave myself to be conquered.

Trapped with the attraction,
danger of the secret world.
Red lights, white lines.
You search for love though you have it.

For freedom we desperately cry.

Trapped with the attraction,
danger of the secret world.
Grey skies twisted blurry lines.
You're losing your focus.

Red lights, white lines.

Red lights, white lines.
