

Nothin' Special

Del McCoury

You've heard a life of luxury is every girl's dream
Lookin' for a millionaire to build her self esteem
But my interest don't fall in monetary desires
Just a steady dose of passion baby's all I require

Nothin' special
I'll take what you've got and be satisfied
Nothin' special
Don't claim to be greedy or dignified
Nothin' special
All I need is you here by my side
Nothin' special
Nothin' special for me

Don't need no pearls or no diamond rings
No trips to Paris for a weekend fling
Just your sweet kiss is all that you need to bring
Cause honey I'm not into all those fancy things

You can keep your lavish parties with your caviar
No need for modern fashions or a brand new car
No fancy mansions with my breakfast in bed,
Just satisfy my hunger with your loving instead.

Don't need a shrink to tell me what I'm feeling inside
Honey give me half a chance and I'll let you decide
I'm no women's lib but Lord I sure ain't no slave
Your warm and tender body is the only thing I crave
