Daylights wasting and the trees are turning Shops are closing and the world is burning down So maybe you should come and waste it with me

So shake a leg, the lights are turning red
Everythings been said
And close your eyes
I don't think I could wait until tomorrow
We've all night
But I don't think I could wait until tomorrow

Leaving loaded, you're aglow like honey
These people and all their money can't buy sweetness
You should come and spend it with me

So shake a leg, the lights are turning red
Everythings been said
And close your eyes
I don't think I could wait until tomorrow
We've all night
But I don't think I could wait until tomorrow
Tomorrow

But lets seek the tree before we skip a beat Falling on defeat
Shake a leg, the lights are turning red
Everythings been said
And close your eyes
I don't think I could wait until tomorrow
We've all night
But I don't think I could wait until tomorrow
