

I Don't Want To Hear It Anymore

Delbert McClinton

You tell me that it's over
You tell me that we're through
Now you come back, with your same ole line
But I don't want hear it anymore.

There was a time, when I wanted you
But I've slowly felt a change
I'd be the fool again, if I just had the time
But I don't wanna hear it anymore

I been hurt so many times before
I told myself that last time
I wasn't gonna be hurt no more
By you

There was a time, I wanted you
But I've slowly felt a change
I'd be the fool again, but I don't have the time
I don't wanna hear it anymore

'Cause it's over, babe, oh yea
Just let the cards fall where they may
I'll close this door and walk away
'Cause I don't wanna hear it anymore
No, I don't wanna hear it anymore
