

The Way You Want It To Be

Delerium

From every side the cold winds blow
You know why
And I know why

And we will see what will be
What the next year holds
As every turning leaf lets go
Another minute folds

All my life I thought I knew the road ahead
Oh, what a strange world
It's a strange world of shadow and light
Oh, but isn't it funny how the time goes by
When all of the while you're wondering
How to say goodbye
Goodbye

Every day and night you're gone
I'll be missing you
But I'm going to be brave
The way you want it to be

Oh, let it all come down on me
Every year every week every day every memory
I'll keep my mind open
The way you want it to be

I will miss you
I will miss you
I will miss you
Always
