

Well, I can't forget the day we met how I could clearly see
With picture-perfect vision, she was the only one for me
My perception of a heavenly love was right there in my sight
I never saw the true writin' on the wall, 'cause she was standi n' in my light

Bought her a diamond ring; nearly everything this workin' man c ould not afford A Chevy, a house, and the credit cards to her favorite departme nt stores
Loved her all I could; I can't believe she would run off with s ome ol' used to be Guess ya never know what the future holds, 'cause for her it wa sn't me

[Chorus]

And they say lookin' back is a lesson, and that's why I won't f orget her Through the smoke and haze of bein' burned, I can see things a whole lot better
Lord, I was blind, but now I find since she did me down and dir ty Hindsight's not twenty-twenty, it's more like a 30-30

Now I'm pickin' up the pieces of this shattered, broken heart o f mine
Been searchin' for the lovin' parts, but the hurtin' ones are a ll I find
When she took her aim, she wasn't playin' no games
Lord, she dropped me right to my knees
She untied our knot with a perfect shot and put me into my mise ry

[Chorus]

Lord, hindsight's not twenty-twenty, it's more like a 30-30
