

Hellfire's Dominion

Desaster

Flames are dancing in my eyes
Firey glance shows no disguise
The devil's mark is shining clear
Fullmoon lurks, now hell is near

With eyes of evil now I can see
The darkside opens it's gates for me
I feel the lust and burning pain
See horny flames who shall domain

Ruler of infernal fire
Light my eyes with dark desire
Words of wisdom calling for hell
Words of holy can't break my spell

Hellfire's dominion

Evil voices summon the night
For the one to spread his wings
Souls of black eagerly awaiting
The coming of the horned

And in the depths of the underworld
Our unholy chants will be heard
Master rise with horns of death
And we will be prepared
