

i know i don't control you i know i don't own you but i still feel a sense of pride 'cause i know what we have is a lie it's a lie and it always used to frighten me now i know it'll always be a part of me it's a lie
i know sometimes we're strangers i know there's still some danger but i still feel a sense of pride 'cause i know what we have is a lie
it's a lie
and it always used to frighten me now i know it'll always be a part of me
it's a lie
a lie more than survive more than get by more than our lives it's a lie i know we'll be together i know forever baby, i love you too my eyes and you know what we have is a lie it's a lie and it always used to frighten me now i know it'll always be a part of me it's a lie
it's a lie (3x)
