Comet Song

Dethklok

Racing through time Souls prey lead blind Interstellar mutilation

Comets speed forth Bring DETH for Earth

Time for you next destination

Galactic DETH Hunts

Flies

Pushes Through

Time Space

Dimensions

It's seeking

Blood

Flesh

Souls

As slaves

To take into hell In Outer space

Advance your place Pay to gain grace Your salvation through defrayal

You will survive So you think your Bank receipts will tip the scale

Galactic DETH

Hunts

Flies

Pushes through

Time

Space

Dimensions

It's seeking

Blood

Flesh

Souls

As slaves

To take into hell

In Outer space

Your time is coming tonight You'll be killed at the speed of light Destiny you can't fight Crushed by comets

Transmogrified

Deth will bring you new life

A slave forever on the planet of hell

Eighty thousand years since the comet took flight

Your destiny is pain forever

The earthquakes
The clouded sky breathes fire
Lava sprays onto the seas
The oceans boil
The deserts freeze

Masses flee into the streets Meteors fly with a magnetized heat Crush and take human deceivers Fry the souls of the non-believers

Smashing killing devouring all
No one is saved the chosen fall
Run with the hordes trample the weak
Crush the skulls of those that can't speak
Sweating bleeding you eyes go wide
The earth is ending it's about to collide
The clouds part the worlds goes black
The comet speeds forth for it's final attack
