

Some will go and some will stay
Make amends and wait for me
Or catch a plane and wait for me to know the devastation
(Oh no...)
Another rainy day...

Yesterday I woke afraid
Unable to discern if the fears were even tangible
Yet again I slept so poor
Familiar feelings of powerlessness coming through

Yet in these hours of clarity I'm found

Yet again it's me not them
Unable to react in a way that's even logical
Yet alone right here it seems so clear:
Your reaction is the problem and the outcome isn't practical

Yet in these times of weakness I am proud
(Somebody opened up my heart)
As all my secret sciences are found

Let it go, any way - let it be a part of yesterday
Let it go, any way - let it be a part of nothing.
Let it go, any way - we shall be a part of loving this

Gold was in your mind, let it go.

While some will go and some will stay, if I make a mess would you wait for me
Cause I have to go, keep your spirits high and your demons low,
They're not dead, they're only sleeping
...so keep your voice down.

Don't go, don't go

Let it go, any way - let it be a part of yesterday
Let it go, any way - we will be among the stars.
Let it go, any way - we shall be a part of loving this
