

Sunrise On Cicero

DeVotchKa

Love is like a paradise
With rumors flying, and sacrifice
And then out before my eyes
Underneath the big city skies
And the moonlight on the moonlight
She looked down with her eyes to me and the moonlight, and the moonlight
I'm so tragic and late

We say:
We wanna die
We aren't alive in here
Why's it so bright in here?
We aren't alive in here
I chew my own heart out
I chew my own heart out
I chew my own heart out, for you

We're shooting on the hoops curves
We're swimming in, the asphalt
And we're going straight to jail
Yeah, we're going straight to hell for this

I saw sunrise down on Cicero
With the drag queens, and the dirty old hoes
We had it going on last night
We were all down here last night
Where the hell were you?

We aren't alive in here
We aren't alive in here
Why's it so bright in here?
We aren't alive in here
I chew my own heart out
I chew my own heart out
I chew my own heart out, for you
All for you
