

Find Me

DeGarmo, Diana

When morning comes
I'm gonna force myself to crawl out of this bed
Open my eyes
And stare out at the open road ahead
Oh, I have stumbled
Been knocked down
But now I'm ready to leave the ground

And fly, spread my wings
And leave the past behind
There's a life for me that I wanna find
And I'm strong enough to be myself this time
I'm wanna leave and not look back
I wanna laugh and love and dance
Don't wanna miss another chance
To find me

For so long
Oh I was too afraid to make a change
Nobody knew
The smile I wore was just a masquerade
Now I'm letting go of
All my fears
No more hiding
No more tears

I'm gonna fly, spread my wings
And leave the past behind
There's a life for me that I wanna find
And I'm strong enough to be myself this time
I'm wanna leave and not look back
I wanna laugh and love and dance
Don't wanna miss another chance
To find me

Oh I've made promises
To everyone else
And now it's time I do something
For myself
Yeah

Hey I'm gonna fly, spread my wings
And leave the past behind
There's a life for me that I wanna find
And I'm strong enough to be myself this time
I'm wanna leave and not look back
I wanna laugh and love and dance
Don't wanna miss another chance
To find me
Yeah, yeah
Oh
Find me
