

Reachin' For Heaven

DeGarmo, Diana

All my life
There was just me and my dreams
And the days went ticking by
Like the beat of my heart
Spend my nights wondering how it would feel
When the waiting would end and tomorrow would start
Suddenly I see a light
Out of the darkness I'm coming alive

This how it feels reaching for heaven
Is this how it feels kissing the sky
This what it means touching forever
Like a phoenix rising from the flames
I'm reaching for heaven

All this time
I never knew I was so strong
But you made me find the fire
That was there all along
In your eyes
I can see all I can be
Suddenly I want it all
I know you'll catch me whenever I fall

You alone have shown me
Shining new horizons
Now for all I owe you
It's my turn to show you

Reaching for heaven
This how it feels kissing the sky
This what it means touching forever
Like a phoenix rising from the flames
I'm reaching for heaven

Reaching for heaven
Heaven
