Master Of The Wind

Die Apokalyptischen Reiter

In the silence of the darkness when all are fast asleep I live inside a dream calling to your spirit
As a sail calls the wind, hear the angels sing

Far beyond the sun across the western sky
Reach into the blackness find a silver line
In a voice I whisper a candle in the night
We'll carry all our dreams in a single dream of light

Close your eyes, look into the dream Winds of change will winds of fortune bring

Fly away to a rainbow in the sky gold is at the end for each of us to find

There the road begins where another one will end Here the four winds know who will break and who will bend All to be the master of the wind

Falling stars now light my way
My life was written on the wind
Clouds above, clouds below
High ascend the dream within

When the wind fills the sky the clouds will move aside And there will be the road to all our dreams For any day that stings two better days it brings

Nothing is as bad as it seems Close your eyes, look into the dream Wins of change will winds of fortune bring

Fly away to a rainbow in the sky gold is at the end for each of us to find

There the road begins where another one will end Here the four winds know who will break and who will bend All to be the master of the wind
